AZ ROC Director Appointed to NASCLA Board of Directors

PHOENIX, Ariz., (June 9, 2015) – On Fri., June 5, 2015, Arizona Registrar of Contractors Director Jeff Fleetham was appointed to the Board of Directors for the National Association of State Contractors Licensing Agencies (NASCLA).

The NASCLA Executive Committee appointed Fleetham during the NASCLA Budget Meeting in Lake Martin, Alabama on Fri., June 5, 2015.

As a Board Member, Fleetham will assist NASCLA in establishing the governing policies and procedures for the management and operation of the Association and help develop long-range policies and strategies, adopt the annual budget, establish membership dues and elect Association Officers.

NASCLA is a national association serving to provide assistance to contractor licensing and enforcement agencies, trade associations and members of construction industry in order to enhance the protection of the general public.

Regarding Fleetham's appointment, NASCLA President Keith Warren and NASCLA Executive Director Angie Whitaker stated, "On behalf of the National Association of State Contractors Licensing Agencies (NASCLA) Executive Committee and Board of Directors, we are very pleased to have Jeff Fleetham, Director of the Arizona Registrar of Contractors, appointed to the NASCLA Board of Directors for FY 2014/2015. Mr. Fleetham will be instrumental in shaping the association. He brings a wealth of history and knowledge to the organization, with a background in construction, consumer products, consulting, and dispute resolution in both public and private sector industries. We are looking forward to working with Mr. Fleetham for many years to come. Welcome Aboard!"
